How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases).”

Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR for Purchases and Balance Transfers and apply the Penalty APR if you make a late payment.

Index And When It Is Determined: The Index used to determine your variable APRs is the U.S. Prime Rate shown in the “Money Rates” section of The Wall Street Journal on the last day the rate is published in each calendar month (the determination date). The Index will be effective for the entire billing cycle that ends in the second month after the determination date. For example, if your billing cycle ends in July, we will use the Index determined on the last day the rate is published in The Wall Street Journal in May.

APR for Purchases and Balance Transfers: To determine the APR for Purchases and Balance Transfers:

For the Platinum Card we add a margin of 6.74% – 14.74% to the Index (Prime Rate) not to exceed a maximum APR of 24.99%.

For the Rewards Card we add a margin of 10.74% – 16.74% to the Index (Prime Rate) not to exceed a maximum APR of 24.99%.

APR for Cash Advances: To determine the APR for Cash Advances, we add a margin of 21.74% to the Index (Prime Rate) not to exceed a maximum APR of 24.99%.

APR for Cash Equivalent Transactions: Cash Equivalent Transactions will be treated as Cash Advances for all purposes of your account, including the APR that applies to such transactions. Cash Equivalent Transactions will be charged a fee as indicated in the Fees table in this document. Cash Equivalent Transactions are those transactions performed using a merchant or service provider that VISA® or MasterCard® identifies as a seller of traveler’s checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers, lottery tickets, funds used for wagers or gambling, or similar products or services.

Penalty APR: We may increase Annual Percentage Rates on your future transactions if you: (1) fail to make a minimum payment to us when due; (2) exceed your credit limit with us; or (3) make a payment to us that is returned (dishonored) for any reason. We may also increase the Annual Percentage Rates on all your balances and transactions if you are more than 60 days late in making a required minimum payment. The amount of an APR increase may be based on how you have handled your account with us and current and historical information regarding your credit in general. These increases will be subject to the requirements of applicable law.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING CHANGES IN TERMS. Subject to applicable law, we reserve the right to unilaterally change the APRs, fees, and other terms at any time, including after your account is closed. If we make changes, we will send you all notices required by law. You understand that the terms of your account, including APRs, are subject to change. APRs are not guaranteed and they may change to higher APRs. We may also change whether your rates will be variable or not.

Application of Payments: We may apply your minimum payment in the order we select, subject to applicable law. However, in general, if you make a payment in excess of the required minimum payment, we will apply the excess amount first to your balances with the highest Annual Percentage Rate. Any remaining portion of that excess amount will be applied to your other balances in descending order based on their applicable Annual Percentage Rates.

Please Note: Your account generally will have monthly billing cycles, except that your first billing cycle may be more or less than one month. All credit terms, including minimum interest charges, will apply in each billing cycle including the first billing cycle.

BALANCE TRANSFERS: We may permit you to transfer balances from other credit card companies or financial institutions (“Other Accounts”) to your account if you are approved. All Balance Transfer requests are subject to our approval; we are not liable if we do not accept a requested Balance Transfer. We reserve the right to make Balance Transfers in the order we select and to limit the amount of the Balance Transfers that we make (this amount may be less than your total credit limit). If you request an amount that we do not approve, we may process a partial transfer for less than you requested or we may decline the entire request. You may not transfer any balance you owe from any other MidFirst Bank account or any of your accounts with any of our related companies. You should not transfer any amount that is in dispute in order to preserve your dispute rights. You should continue to monitor the Other Accounts that you request to transfer balances from and you should continue to pay the minimum payments due on the Other Accounts until you receive statements from those creditors showing that the balances due on the Other Accounts have been paid in full. This may not happen until after the Balance Transfer appears on your billing statement from us. You are liable for any late payments, interest charges, or disputed amounts on your Other Accounts. If you want your Other Accounts closed following a Balance Transfer, you are responsible for doing so. Balance Transfers are subject to applicable fees and interest charges and do not have the benefit of a period within which any credit extended may be repaid without incurring a finance charge due to a periodic interest rate, also known as a grace period.

CREDIT REPORTS: By applying for this account, you agree that MidFirst Bank may obtain credit reports for purposes of processing your application and for later purposes related to your account such as increasing the credit line and for collection purposes. Upon your request, you will be informed of whether or not a credit report was requested and the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. You also authorize MidFirst Bank to verify your employment, income and other relevant information.

NOTICE TO CARDHOLDERS AND AUTHORIZED USERS: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, the USA Patriot Act requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person (including business entities) who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, physical address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We also may ask for other identifying documents. We will let you know if additional information is required.

INFORMATION SHARING WITH VISA: We may share nonpublic personal information with VISA U.S.A., its Members, or their respective contractors for the purpose of providing Emergency Card Replacement or to meet other types of reporting requirements related to membership in the association. By signing the application and making purchases, you consent to the release of this information to VISA U.S.A., its Members, or their respective contractors for these purposes.

Married applicants may apply for separate accounts in their own names.

OHIO RESIDENTS: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

NOTICE TO MARRIED WISCONSIN APPLICANTS: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement or court decree adversely affects our interests and/or rights unless, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open-end credit plan is entered into, we are furnished with a copy of the agreement, statement, or decree or have actual knowledge of the adverse provision. How Points are Earned:

Cardholders will earn one Point for every $1.00 in Net Purchases posted to the Account. Cardholders do not earn Points for certain categories of transactions, including, but not limited to: card account fees and charges including interest charges, late payment fees, annual fees, other charges, unauthorized or fraudulent charges, Balance Transfers, Cash Equivalent Transactions or Cash Advances of any kind (including convenience checks, money orders, Automated Teller Machine (ATM) and bank teller withdrawals) foreign transaction currency conversion charges, or other transactions that We determine not to be eligible. Changes to the above list are at the sole discretion of MidFirst, subject to applicable law.

When Points Are Earned:

Points are considered earned when they are posted to your Account. Points may take up to 30 days to post following the date on which the underlying Qualifying Purchase posts to your Account. We reserve the right to verify and adjust Points at any time. Information regarding Point redemption and balance is available online at midfirst.com or by calling the MidFirst Award Headquarters at 866-772-6184.

Cardholders can redeem Points for merchandise, gift cards, travel, other goods and services and cash back in the form of a credit to the Account or a check (collectively, the "Rewards"). Point redemption may be subject to shipping, handling or other fees, including expedited delivery fees. Federally-imposed airline security fees, as well as any surcharges or additional fees, may be imposed by the airlines or available authority. We reserve the right to refuse to redeem Points if you exceed the credit limit associated with your Account or if you fail to make a minimum payment when due.

When Points Expire:

Points will expire five (5) years from the end of the calendar-year quarter in which they are earned. Account statements will show Points that are due to expire at the end of the calendar-year quarter in which the statement is issued.

Forfeiture of Points:

Closing your Account (by you or by us), termination of your enrollment in the Program, or your failure to make a minimum payment on your Account within 60 days of a due date will result in the termination of the Program and any unused accumulated Points will be forfeited. Also, you will not earn future Points and could forfeit any accumulated Points previously awarded if you engage in any fraud or abuse with respect to the accrual or redemption of Points.

Other Terms and Conditions:

The Program is void where prohibited or restricted by law. Points cannot be transferred between the Program and any other rewards or loyalty program. Subject to applicable law, this Program may be modified, suspended, or canceled and the redemption value of already accumulated Points may be changed at any time. Changes to the Program may include, but are not limited to, modifications which affect accrual and expiration of Points. You will be notified of Point accrual, Point expiration, and/or Point forfeiture changes.
