

Privacy Policy

MIT Federal Credit Union is a member-owned financial institution. We are committed to protecting your privacy. Our privacy disclosure informs you of what we do with, and how we protect, your personal and financial information.

NOTICE OF YOUR FINANCIAL PRIVACY RIGHTS We, our, and us, when used in this notice, mean MIT Federal Credit Union. This is our privacy notice for our members. When we use the words “you” and “your” we mean the following types of members:

- Our consumer members who have a continuing relationship by purchasing or holding financial products or services such as a(n): - Share account - Loan account - Credit card account

We will tell you the sources of the information we collect about you. We will tell you what measures we take to secure that information. We first define some terms. Nonpublic personal information means information about you that we collect in connection with providing a financial product or service to you. Nonpublic personal information does not include information that is available from public sources, such as telephone directories or government records. Hereafter, we will use the term “information” to mean nonpublic personal information as defined in this section. An affiliate is a company we own or control. A nonaffiliated third party is a person we do not employ or a company that is not an affiliate of ours. This is also known as nonaffiliated third party, or simply, an “other party.”

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT We collect information about you from the following sources:

- Information you give us on applications or other forms
- Information about your transactions with us
- Information about your transactions with other parties
- Information from a consumer reporting agency

THE CONFIDENTIALITY, SECURITY, AND INTEGRITY OF YOUR INFORMATION We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect this information.

YOUR INFORMATION AND OTHER PARTIES We will not disclose information about you to anyone except as disclosed in this policy or as permitted by law. Examples of this might include disclosures necessary to service your account or prevent unauthorized transactions.

TRUST DEPARTMENT INFORMATION We do not share any information we collect, in connection with offering our trust department services, with anyone (except to the extent necessary to complete transactions authorized by you).

INFORMATION ABOUT FORMER MEMBERS We do not disclose information about former members, except as permitted by law.

AUTHORIZED SHARING—OUTSIDE MARKETING SERVICES We may disclose the following information to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf:

- Information you give us on an application or other forms, such as: Name, Address
- Information about your transactions with us, such as: Account Balances, Types of Accounts

We disclose the information listed above with companies that perform marketing services on our behalf. You do not have a right to opt out of the disclosure of this information. We may also disclose information about you to other outside marketing services as permitted by law. We do not provide opt-out of our privacy disclosure because MIT Federal Credit Union does not share nonpublic personal information with nonaffiliated third parties who do not contribute to your financial interests or who are prohibited by federal law.

Types of Businesses Here are the types of businesses with whom we may disclose information for outside marketing purposes:

- Service providers that perform marketing services for us, such as: Direct Mail Solicitors

Reasons For Disclosing We may disclose information about you to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf to provide you with information about additional products and services.
