Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR and apply the penalty APR if you make a late payment.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

Your Annual Percentage Rate may vary quarterly and is based on the Prime Rate. Your rate is determined by adding a margin of: 5.99% to 17.99% on Purchases and Balance Transfers for the Platinum card, or 7.99% to 19.99% on Purchases and Balance Transfers for the Platinum Rewards card, and 14.99% to 19.99% on Cash Advances and 20.99% on Penalty to the Prime Rate for the Platinum card and the Platinum Rewards card. The Prime Rate Index used to determine your APR is the highest rate published in The Wall Street Journal during the last business day of the previous calendar quarter (March, June, September and December), and changes are effective as of the 1st day of your next billing cycle. Current U.S. Prime Rate of 3.50% as of March 31, 2016. (See the Visa credit card agreement for complete details.)

Introductory rate and incentive offers, including bonus points, are not available to those members who in the previous six months have had (i) an open Alliant Visa credit card account, or (ii) an outstanding balance on a closed Alliant Visa credit card account.

After this promotional period ends, your standard variable APR will apply to any remaining balance and to all new purchases and balance transfers. The terms of this introductory rate may not be applied to existing Alliant Credit Union Visa accounts.

This promotional introductory offer is based on meeting Alliant Credit Union's criteria for creditworthiness. Alliant Credit Union will review your credit and employment history and any other information afforded to Alliant Credit Union by law in order to process your application. Factors we may consider in determining whether and how to change your terms include the frequency and severity of defaults and other indications of risk on accounts with Alliant Credit Union and other creditors. To the extent allowed by law, the new terms will affect all outstanding balances.

The minimum monthly payment is 3% of your balance, or $25, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any prior minimum payments that you have not made (see the Visa credit card agreement for complete details).
