

Westpac Credit Guide

This Credit Guide gives you important information about the products we provide which are regulated by the National Credit Code (“consumer lending products”).

In this document, the words “we”, “us”, “our” and “Westpac” refer to Westpac Banking Corporation. References to the “Westpac Group” refer to all our related bodies corporate. The Westpac Group has additional products and services that are not covered by this document. In your interaction with the Westpac Group, you may receive Financial Services Guides and additional Credit Guides.

Westpac’s consumer lending products include:

- Credit cards
- Home loans
- Residential property investment loans, and
- Personal loans.

Our general obligations

In relation to our consumer lending products, we will not, as a credit provider:

- Enter into a credit contract with you; or
- Increase the credit limit of a credit contract with you,

If we assess that the credit contract is unsuitable for you.

We refer to this assessment as the Suitability Assessment.

When will the credit contract be unsuitable?

A credit contract will be unsuitable if:

- The credit contract does not meet your requirements or objectives; or
- It is likely that you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract; or
- It is likely that you could only comply with your financial obligations under the credit contract with substantial hardship.

How can you access a copy of the Suitability Assessment?

If your application for credit or increase in credit has been approved, you can call 1300 130 206 and request a written copy of the Suitability Assessment which we will provide within the following timeframes:

Your request is made:	We will give you your assessment:
Before the Credit Day* –	As soon as possible after we receive your request
Up to 2 years after the Credit Day* –	Within 7 business days after we receive your request
Between 2 and 7 years after the Credit Day* –	Within 21 business days after we receive your request

* The Credit Day is the date the credit contract is entered into or the credit limit is increased.

We are not required to provide you a copy of the assessment if the credit application or increase has been declined or if the credit contract your request relates to was entered into before 1 January 2011.
